

Activities and More ... Preparing Activity Professionals for the Future of Long Term Care

January 21-25, 2019 | DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Richmond - Midlothian

Are you looking for training specifically designed for activity personnel?

Join VHCA-VCAL for Activities and More, a week-long course offering comprehensive training in programming and documentation for activity personnel. You will leave energized with ideas and resources to help you direct the activity program in your facility tailored to the individual needs of those in your community.

Our great line up of speakers includes customer service experts, D.A. "Woody" Brown Award winners, long term care industry consultants, gerontologists, and Alzheimer's experts.

Register now to learn how to design programs that are meaningful, fulfilling, and fun.

Course Highlights

- Earn 45-hours of hands-on, engaging training for activity professionals in one week.
- Get advice and practical tips on how to design activities that support positive aging, build a sense of community, promote residents' rights, and more.
- Explore how art, music, and cooking activities can be tailored to meet the needs of all.
- Take advantage of opportunities to learn from experts in gerontology, dementia care, and customer service.
- Network with other activity professionals and share best practices.
