Overview

November 3, 2022 | 1:00 – 2:00 pm

Beam Me Up! Leveraging Telehealth Opportunities in a Post-Pandemic World
Benjamin H. Traynham | Associate | Hancock Daniel

In this webinar, Ben Traynham will discuss the emergence of telehealth opportunities as a result of the pandemic, and how providers can leverage these opportunities to benefit their residents. He will review how telehealth services are reimbursed and whether further developments can be anticipated. The webinar will also cover the compliance implications of telehealth services, including key considerations relating to proper documentation and protection of resident PHI.

November 10, 2022 | 1:00 – 2:00 pm

When the Best Defense Is a Good Defense: Fighting to Win at IDR and Beyond
Kyle René | Associate | Hancock Daniel

In this webinar, Kyle René will review the basics of the state's Informal Dispute Resolution (IDR) and CMS Departmental Appeals Board (DAB) processes. He will outline how to analyze survey results and determine whether pursuing IDR or an appeal makes sense. Lastly, he will discuss how lawyers strategize survey litigation and how you can contribute as a provider.

November 17, 2022 | 1:00 – 2:00 pm

When to Seek Qualified Legal Counsel
Joseph E.H. (Eric) Atkinson | Partner | Hancock Daniel

During this webinar, Eric Atkinson will discuss the importance of conducting internal audits as a routine matter before any claim review requests are received. He will also explore what could happen when a final audit letter includes fraud allegations and a discussion of how and when you may want to have your attorney engage with audit team. Atkinson will also review how your legal counsel can help with the appeal process for Medicare, Medicaid, and commercial insurance plans and why an appeal, even if unsuccessful, is an important part of your overall defense.
